Mourning doves are calling as the evening sun goes down.
5 4 1
Wheels whine on the highway out on the edge of town;
1 2
A honeysuckle wind comes blowing through my mind
5 4 1
And gently takes me back to another place and time...

1 2
Wind chimes start to tinkle like the ice cubes in my cup;
5 4 1
Stars come out and twinkle, and a sleepy moon wakes up.
1 2
Far off in the distance -- the hooting of an owl,
the barking of a dog, and a lonesome coyote's howl...

1 2
And the fireflies flicker x4

Instrumental break

Crickets start to jammin', and the bullfrogs join right in The town clock strikes nine. And the cicadas start to sing.
Tonight these woods are rocking. It's a front porch swinger's dream:
It's a concert in the gloaming with no admission fee:

Chorus:

And the fireflies flicker.
The fireflies flicker.
And the fireflies flicker.
The fireflies flicker

More, more, more

Encore! Encore!
More, more, more
Encore, encore
And the fireflies flicker
The fireflies flicker etc.....
